

Digital Cameras 101

Camera Basics Day 1

1. Digital photographs are made up of small colored squares called _____.
2. Printers print images using _____ while monitors display images using _____.
3. _____ measures a digital photo's pixel dimensions.
4. Always shoot your photos in _____ resolution because they will give you larger and more detailed photographs.
5. Avoid shooting in _____ resolution because it will leave you with fuzzy poor quality images.
6. Megapixels is a rating that tells you _____ _____ you can get without sacrificing _____
_____.
7. A digital camera records images using _____
_____. In contrast, a film camera relies on _____
_____.
8. What are examples of camera brands?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____

9. What are the 4 types of cameras?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

d. _____

10. What does DSLR stand for? _____

11. Who uses a DSLR? _____

12. What type of camera is usually inexpensive and is small enough to be carried in a shirt pocket? _____

13. Camera lenses are made up of _____.

14. List 2 examples of types of camera lenses:

a. _____

b. _____

15. What are the 3 types of focus?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

16. Specify what method each type of zoom uses to magnify and image.

a. Optical Zoom - _____

b. Digital Zoom - _____

17. The mirror and the shutter curtain can easily be damaged by _____ so do not _____.